

PROGRAMME

Cheating and fraud in the theory test

Venue: Hotel Mundial, Praça Martim Moniz 2 - 1100-341 - Lisboa – Portugal

DAY 1
13:00	Welcoming words Introduction: Why are we having this workshop?	Mika Hotti , TAG Chairman Josée Noe , GOCA, Chair of the workshop
13:20	Group work activities and discussions: (1) What do we mean by cheating and fraud? (2) Different types of cheating and fraud Plenary discussion	Josée Noe , GOCA, Chair of the workshop, and all CIECA members
14:30	Presentation: The state of the affairs	Karsten Nikolaisen , Norwegian Public Roads Administration, and TAG member
14:45	Coffee break
15:15	Group work activities and discussions: (3) Countermeasures: How to fight these phenomena? (4) Practical exercise: Resolution of case studies Plenary discussion	Josée Noe , GOCA, Chair of the workshop, and all CIECA members
16:15	Processes, procedures and theory test centre set-up to minimise the risk of cheating and fraud	Guy Chamberlain , DVSA, and TAG member
16:35	Technological methods to avoid cheating and fraud	Lauris Kumpins , Ministry of Transport of Latvia, TAG member
16:45	End of day 1
DAY 2
9:00	Warming up: Summary of Day 1	Josée Noe , GOCA, Chair of the workshop
9:15	Group work activities and discussions: (5) Reviewing items to face cheating (6) Public item banks: advantages and disadvantages Plenary discussion	Josée Noe , GOCA, Chair of the workshop, and all CIECA members
10:45	Coffee break
11:15	How exam design can counteract the risk of cheating and fraud	Amede Anku-Roberts , Pearson VUE, CIECA Associated member
11:35	Questions and answers	All
11:45	Data forensics	Garrett Sherry , Prometric, CIECA Associated member
12:05	Questions and answers	All
12:10	Conclusions	Josée Noe , GOCA, Chair of the workshop
12:15	Final words	Mika Hotti , TAG Chairman
12:30	End of the workshop and LUNCH	